

The Craziest Carnival is with Bravofly

Experience carnival madness among parades, floats and costumes of all kinds, with offers on flights and hotels

Milan, January 26th 2009 - Carnival has begun and in many cities the preparations for parties, masquerades and allegorical floats are nearly over! Have fun and above all, travel, with Bravofly offers on the craziest festival in the world!

The Venice Carnival

The most traditional carnival is in Venice, where the streets fill with costumes of all shapes and colours, from the more traditional kind to those never seen before. The event not to be missed is in St. Mark's Square where tourists queue up from all over the world to get their photos taken along side the most beautiful costumes. Parades and masqueraded dance competitions are within everyone's reach with Bravofly offers on flights and hotels.

Return flights to Venice, including taxes, from 44 euro and 3 star hotels from 50 euro a night for a twin room.

Carnival in Cologne

If you want to enjoy a completely new carnival, Bravofly offers a trip to Cologne in Germany. The festival begins in November and reaches the height of madness in February during the "Carnival of the Spinsters" when the women turn into the true mistresses of the city, taking all kinds of liberties with the men. The big parades invade the city on "Rose Monday" (Rosenmontag), the liveliest day of celebrations in Germany.

Return flights to Cologne, including taxes, from 58 euro and 3 star hotels from 47 euros a night for a twin room.

Kids Carnival

For those who love fancy dress and masquerades, child or adult, the Disneyland Resort in Paris offers great deals to go and meet the Disney characters. For those who want to book at a Disney Hotel, one day's free entrance, one nights free stay, and 12 year olds don't pay. Spending a few days in Paris really is affordable for the whole family with Bravofly.

Return flights to Paris, including taxes, from 44 euro and 3 star hotels from 50 euro a night for a twin room.

Carnival in Barcelona

When better to visit Barcelona and see the true Catalan soul let loose than during the craziest festival of the year. During carnival Barcellona welcomes its visitors with masquerade balls and fancy dress parades (the most characteristic takes place along the Rua that crosses the Ramblas to end up at Montjuik with the burying of the sardine, symbolising the beginning of lent). The whole city is a festival of bizarre costumes, music and dancing in the streets all night long.
